

Executive summary	5
Résumé	17
Zusammenfassung	29
Introduction	43
Part 1: Disadvantaged ethnic minority women in Europe	45
1. Definitions and distribution of disadvantaged ethnic minority communities in Europe: an overview	46
1.1. Relevant definitions of ethnic minorities at the European and national level	46
1.2. Dimension and distribution of disadvantaged ethnic minorities in the European countries ..	50
2. Gender and ethnicity: Social disadvantage and exclusion	54
2.1. A comparative profile of the socio-economic condition of ethnic minorities and the main risks of social exclusion related to ethnicity. A gender perspective	54
2.1.1. Educational level and access to the education system	54
2.1.2. Housing conditions	56
2.1.3. Health conditions and access to the healthcare system	58
2.1.4. Access to the long-term care system	59
2.1.5. Access to social benefits	59
2.1.6. Access to employment, job quality and working conditions	61
2.1.7. Access to financial services	64
2.2. The multiple discrimination of ethnic minority women	64
3. Institutional framework underlying ethnic minorities' social inclusion and gender equality policies	66
3.1. European and national legislative framework	66
3.1.1. European legislative framework	66
3.1.2. National legal framework	70
3.2. Policy making and implementation	75
3.3. Dedicated institutions and/or organisations	82
4. Good practices in social and labour market inclusion of ethnic minorities: A gender equality perspective	87
4.1. General characteristics of good practices	87
4.2. Governmental and NGO good practices	87
4.3. Main areas of intervention	88

5. Definitions and distribution of Roma communities in Europe: an overview . . . 97

- 5.1. The legal status of Roma communities: relevant definitions at the national level 100
- 5.2. Dimension and distribution of the Roma communities in European countries 103

6. Roma-specific social disadvantage and exclusion: A gender perspective . . . 105

- 6.1. A comparative profile of the socio-economic condition and main risks of social exclusion faced by Roma and, more specifically, Roma women 105
 - 6.1.1. Educational level and access to the education system 106
 - 6.1.2. Housing conditions. 109
 - 6.1.3. Health conditions and access to the healthcare system 111
 - 6.1.4. Access to the long-term care system 115
 - 6.1.5. Access to social benefits 116
 - 6.1.6. Access to employment, job quality and working conditions. 118
 - 6.1.7. Access to financial services 121
- 6.2. The multiple discrimination of Roma women 122

7. Institutional framework underlying Roma social inclusion and gender equality policies. 125

- 7.1. Introduction. 125
- 7.2. A review of national legislation on Roma minorities. 125
- 7.3. Policymaking and implementation. 128
- 7.4. Dedicated institutions and/or organisations 132

8. Good practice examples: labour market participation and social inclusion of Roma women 134

Overall conclusions 139

References 143